Dear Sirs: In regard to the letter in one of your columns about the meaning of THURSH, there is a meaning given by the writer of the fourth U.N.C.L.E. books, as follows: "Technological Hierarchy for the Removal of Undesirables and the Subjugation of Humanity." I hope this helps. — P.L. Burlingame.

Dear P. L.: It does and thank you very much. Let's hope everyone reads and remembers it.

Dear Staff: While Peggy Cass is no intellectual giantess, she adds a welcome touch of spice to "To Tell the Truth." Please furnish a brief thumbnail sketch. Thank you. —The Malcontents, Berkeley.

Dear Malcontents of Berkeley: And thank you for writing. Peggy's real name is Mary Margaret Cass and she gives her birthdate as May 21, 1926. She scored her first big success on Broadway in "Auntie Mame" and followed with the same role of Miss Gooch in the movie version. She married Carl Fisher in 1948 and separated from him in September, 1961.

Dear Sirs: Have just finished watching the old movie, "White Christmas" (1954). In the cast along with Bing, Danny Kaye, and Rosemary Clooney was a cute blonde named Vera-Ellen. Could you tell me what happened to her? — M. F., Denver.

Dear M. F.: Vera-Ellen's last name, which she never used, is Rohs. She married Victor Rothschild in the mid-50s and had a daughter, Victoria Ellen. They were born March 2, 1963 and passed away three months later. Victor sued Vera-Ellen for divorce in September, 1966.

Dear Staff: Please tell me

all you can about Donnie Melvin, who played with Geraldine Page in "A Christmas Memory" on Stage 67, N.S.G., Peoria, Ill.

Dear N.S.G.: Donnie is so new to show business, you have caught us completely unaware. Just write to Donnie, care of Stage 67, ABC-TV, New York, New York. If that doesn't help, try Los Angeles and if that doesn't work, please write us again.

Dear Sir: Could you tell me the name of Tony Franciosa's TV series in 1965? We're having a STRONG disagreement. —N.D., La Honda, Calif.

Dear N.D.: It was called "Valentine's Day."

Dear Staff: What's this I hear about a new version of "Peter Pan" coming out of Hollywood. Please tell me if there is any way I can be a candidate. I am only 17. I've always planned to train and finish school but now it looks like my chance for the one role I can play is coming too soon. Please don't snuff me off and answer as encouragingly as possible. — U. V., San Mateo, Calif.

Dear U. V.: I'm taking your letter seriously and I must tell you the role of "Peter Pan" has always been played by a woman—usually in her 20's or 40's. You see, the role is not as easy as it seems to you in the audience. So your age and lack of experience would be against you. The answer's still the same—study and train for show business—you have many years and many roles to play.

Dear Sir: This is to inform Mrs. Grace Tiscareno and you, sir, that my Wayne Newton lost 65 pounds and is very skinny. If he loses another ounce, he'll disappear! Also Wayne is the BEST singer in the world. I'm a pioneer Newton fan and I'm sure he's a SAINT. Wayne Newton Forever. —Charlene Dennehey, Holbrook, Mass.

Dear Charlene: The mail is all yours!

Dear Staff: Were any TV stars born on Oct. 8 and Aug. 15? — A.M., Fort Worth, Tex.

Dear A. M.: For Oct. 8: Kamala Devi, Ray Stricklyn, and Jill Jarmn. Better luck with Aug. 15: Janice Rule, Mike Connors, Abby Dalton, Jill Haworth, Signe Hasso, Lori Nelson, Huntz Hall, Tony Martin, and Barbara Bouchet.
